ORDINARY PEOPLE DOING EXTRAORDINARY THINGS

Extraordinary Is

"What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived. It is what difference we have made to the lives of others that will determine the significance of the life we lead."

~ Nelson Mandela

The Otis and Rosie Brown Foundation was inspired by my families conviction that extraordinary things can be done with ordinary resources. The Foundation was created to advance the legacy of my parents Otis and Rosie Brown who instilled in me and my my siblings a recognition that all things are possible through love and stewardship and a belief that all have the duty to extend a hand to help lift our fellow man 2015 launched my dream to celebrate and seed extraordinary people, who utilize ordinary resources to make a positive difference. And what a momentous year we had. From awarding Khalia Wheery, who currently attends Texas Tech University with a goal to become a Doctor Without Borders, to Cynthia Nevels who was inspired to launch her SoulGood Food Truck by her son who battled a strong fight against Cystic Fibrosis.

With the generous contributions of our donors and the passion of our board and volunteers, we have started an online movement reaching thousands across North Texas and reminding us all that we have the ability to be extraordinary.

#MyExtraordinaryIs Passion, Laughter and Giving Back.

I am proud of what we have accomplished this past year and even more excited about what more we will get done in 2016. Our social media #myextraordinaryis garnered over 4000 Facebook Likes. We exceeded our goal of raising over $25,000 through our social giving $5 Fridays, on-line donations and our sold our ExtraordinaryIs Awards Gala at Edisons Restaurant in Dallas, Texas featuring "The Money Coach" Lynette Khalfani Cox as our keynote speaker. We awarded six well deserving individuals whose stories remind us how we can all embrace the extraordinary that resides within.

I am blessed that my parents Otis and Rosie Brown are here to witness and be a part a foundation that was inspired by them. I am blessed to know that their legacy of giving will make help make dreams come true one positive encounter at a time.

Call To Action

We believe everyone has the capacity to use ordinary resources to do extraordinary work in our communities. We have received an impressive amount of nominations complete with stories of hard working people taking the time to change the world we live in. We enjoy hearing about the nurse providing free services at the local clinic, to the coach helping student athletes go to college to retirees helping the disabled compete in national sports competitions. The Otis and Rosie Brown Foundation's Extraordinary Is campaign wants to hear your story. We invite you to take a moment to support this social marketing campaign.

#myextraordinaryis

1. Visit our Facebook page and share your personal story of how you or someone you know has given back to the community through volunteering, launching a social program or helping their fellow man or woman. Remember to use the hashtag #myextraordinaryis.
2. Nominate your favorite high school senior for an Extraordinary Is scholarship, a local small business or nonprofit organization for a community leader award online at www.extraordinaryis.org.
3. Visit our web page and make a donation to support our scholarship program and community leadership grant award created to help local small businesses and nonprofit organizations continue to deliver extraordinary services to the community.
4. Sign up to volunteer for to help one of our local Extraordinary Is non profit organizations by visiting us online at www.extraordinaryis.org.
